

BURUNDI	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Supported all resolutions on FGM + Co-sponsored a few resolutions on PMMM + Accepted UPR recommendations on FGM, CEFM, and girls' education 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Supported many hostile amendments to resolutions on women's rights - Co-sponsored very few resolutions on women's rights - Opposed resolutions on, and supported all amendments to, SOGI - Opposed a resolution on protecting HRDs and WHRDs - Supported cultural-relativist initiatives - Seldom engages in actual negotiations
DJIBOUTI	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Supported all resolutions on FGM + Co-sponsored many resolutions on VAWG + Combatting human trafficking is one of its policy priorities 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Supported a hostile amendment to a resolution on DAWG - Co-sponsored hostile amendments to, and opposed, SOGI resolutions - Supported cultural-relativist initiatives
ERITREA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Supported all resolutions on FGM 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Supported hostile amendments to resolutions on women's rights and CEFM - Never co-sponsored any resolution on women's rights - Supported hostile amendments to, and opposed, SOGI resolutions - Supported cultural-relativist initiatives - Seldom engages in actual negotiations
ETHIOPIA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Supported all resolutions on FGM + Led initiatives on CEFM + Supported a resolution on protecting HRDs and WHRDs + Showed independence by abstaining or refusing to vote on a number of amendments to VAWG or SOGI resolutions + Is now more open to discussing issues such as sexual and reproductive health 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Co-sponsored very few resolutions on women's rights - Never co-sponsored any resolution on PMMM - Opposed SOGI resolutions - Supported some hostile amendments to women's rights and PMMM resolutions
KENYA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Supported all resolutions on FGM + Showed independence by abstaining or refusing to vote on a number of amendments to women's rights resolutions + Opposed some amendments to VAWG resolutions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Co-sponsored few resolutions on women's rights - Co-sponsored very few resolutions on CEFM and PMMM - Supported hostile amendments to, and opposed, SOGI resolutions, and even supported procedural ploys against them - Supported some amendments to women's rights resolutions
RWANDA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Supported all resolutions on FGM + Consistently supported and co-sponsored resolutions on women's rights and CEFM + Also co-sponsored resolutions on PMMM and girls' education + Opposed hostile amendments to resolutions on women's rights, CEFM, and PMMM + Supported a resolution on SOGI + Often engages in negotiations 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Rejected a few UPR recommendations on girls' rights
SOMALIA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Supported all resolutions on FGM + - Co-sponsored a number of resolutions on PMMM + - Accepted UPR recommendations on VAWG and harmful practices against girls 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Supported hostile amendments to resolutions on women's rights and CEFM - Co-sponsored few resolutions on women's rights - Supported hostile amendments to, and opposed, SOGI resolutions - Supported cultural-relativist initiatives - Seldom engages in actual negotiations - Remains outside the CEDAW Convention
SOUTH SUDAN	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Supported all resolutions on FGM + Ratified CEDAW and OP-CEDAW despite its recent independence + Accepted UPR recommendations on harmful practices and girls' education 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Co-sponsored very few resolutions on women's rights, CEFM, and PMMM - Co-sponsored hostile amendments to SOGI resolutions - Seldom engages in actual negotiations
SUDAN	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Supported all resolutions on FGM + Received the Special Rapporteur on VAW (but later attacked her report) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Never co-sponsored any resolution on women's rights - Co-sponsored only one resolution on CEFM - Co-sponsored hostile amendments to SOGI resolutions - Remains outside the CEDAW Convention
TANZANIA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Supported all resolutions on FGM + Ratified CEDAW and OP-CEDAW 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Co-sponsored very few resolutions on women's rights, CEFM, or PMMM - Rejected a number of UPR recommendations on women's rights - Has never formulated any UPR recommendation on women's rights - Seldom engages in actual negotiations
UGANDA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> + Supported all resolutions on FGM + Co-sponsored two resolutions on PMMM 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Co-sponsored very few resolutions on women's rights - Co-sponsored hostile amendments to SOGI resolutions - Rejected some UPR recommendations on women's rights