

THE STAKES

THE INTERNATIONAL CONTEXT

- Geopolitical divisions, ongoing conflicts (Ukraine, Gaza/Israel, Sudan, & many more), elections in 60+ countries in 2024
- Tensions & polarisation over gender issues and women's & girls' rights, and more generally over societal issues
- Ongoing liquidity crisis affecting the UN & human rights mechanisms

STAKES FOR THE HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL

- HRC56 (18 June-12 July 2024) – June sessions have a gender focus (discrimination against women & girls (DAWG), GBV, etc.)
- Resolutions on new topics: on the human rights of seafarers (presented by the Philippines); on human rights advisers (presented by Kyrgyzstan, Latvia, Paraguay & UK)

What to expect on gender-related resolutions? Will Russia, Egypt & other states challenge previously agreed language? Will they present numerous amendments?

STAKES FOR AFRICA

- Ahead of the session, resolutions were expected on two African situations: Eritrea & Libya
- The African Group was expected to present resolutions on FGM and menstrual hygiene management

What level of attention for debates on Eritrea & Sudan? What response to the security & human rights crisis in the Sahel?

ADVOCACY INITIATIVES

SUDAN & ERITREA

- Strong civil society push to extend the mandate of the Fact-Finding Mission (FFM) for Sudan (79 signatories) and advocacy in Geneva with a Sudanese HRD, Niemat Ahmadi (24-28 June 2024) – meetings with states & experts (her story)
- Advocacy with Elsa Chyrum (18-21 June 2024) for the extension of the mandate of the Special Rapporteur on Eritrea (civil society call signed by 30+ organisations)
- High-level side event with Hon. Commissioner Dr. Litha Musyimi-Ogana (ACHPR) and Dr. Babiker (UN Special Rapporteur on Eritrea), among others:

"Taking the Addis Ababa Roadmap forward: Engagement on Eritrea by the UN and African human rights systems"

OTHER ADVOCACY ENGAGEMENTS

- Oral statements on Sudan, Eritrea, Burundi, and in response to the High Commissioner's annual report
- Side event on FoAA with the new Special Rapporteur, Gina Romero
- Launch of "Is the Tide Turning?," a report that comprehensively analyses how states vote on Africa-focused resolutions at the HRC – the report covers all resolutions on African countries adopted since the Council's creation, in 2006

ANALYSIS OF THE SESSION

- Press release on the adoption of a resolution on Eritrea – a positive outcome (resolution slightly beefed up) that follows weeks of advocacy

HRC56 TAKEAWAYS FOR

OUTCOMES:
resolutions and more

- Resolution on Eritrea: extension of the Special Rapporteur's mandate + important message that being a member of the HRC doesn't prevent scrutiny
- Disappointing, unambitious resolution on Libya, adopted at the initiative of the government itself [Libya / African Group initiative]
- No resolution on Sudan at HRC56 – it is pushed to HRC57 (the main objective will be to extend the FFM's mandate)
- No resolution on FGM: lots of amendments presented (and defeated) on gender issues: resolution on menstrual hygiene management adopted [African Group initiative]

OTHER OUTCOMES

- Country resolutions adopted on Myanmar & Colombia
- Thematic resolutions adopted on freedom of expression, peaceful protests, racism, DAWG, etc..

To be noted: The African Group resumed delivering collective statements (on Eritrea, Burundi, etc.)

WAY FORWARD

- We contributed to maintaining a high level of attention to Sudan and enhanced the profile of Eritrea through advocacy and an event on the Addis Ababa Roadmap

NEXT
